

NACUSAsf

Nancy Bloomer Deussen Young & Emerging Composers Competition

Submission deadline:
November 15, 2023

The San Francisco chapter of the National Association of Composers USA is happy to invite submissions to our 2023 competition in honor of composer and NACUSAsf founder Nancy Bloomer Deussen.

Open to current residents of the greater San Francisco Bay Area in either of two categories –

- Young composers: students attending grades 7–12 as of the submission deadline
- Emerging composers: ages 18 and up as of the submission deadline

Up to two awards in each category –

First prize

- $200 cash prize and award certificate
- Professionally recorded public performance of the winning work
- 1 year complimentary membership in NACUSAsf

First runner-up

- $100 cash prize and award certificate
- 1 year complimentary membership in NACUSAsf

Composers may submit –

- Up to two works of 3–5 minutes each
- Composed during the last 3 calendar years (Jan 2020 - Nov 15, 2023)
- For any combination of the following instruments:
1 violin, 1 clarinet, and/or 1 piano (up to 3 players total, no more than 1 per instrument)

For full competition rules and details, visit
<http://nacusasf.org/NBDcompetition/>